

22 hours ago: Surveillance from launch bay 17 during routine inspection by Pan Oceana troops.

18 hours ago: the cargo manifests and flight path were discovered to be fakes.

17.5 hours ago: an interceptor was scrambled to track and apprehend the short haul trucker.

13 hours ago: intelligence services indicated that there was a high probability that the AccessTel shipping containers included barrels that were not included in the manifest.

10 hours ago: our interceptor tracked and approached the trucker only to be interrupted by an unidentified military ship. Missile fire was exchanged and the trucker veered off course. It may have been hit by debris.

8 hours ago: the trucker's crash site was found and your team has been tasked with recon duties.

Mission Objectives:

Successfully Inspect each suspect barrel (1 pt each).

Successfully Inspect the trucker's navigation computer (2 pts).

Kill the adversary's Lieutenant (2 pts).

Kill more Army Points than the adversary (4 pts).

Special Rules:

This scenario lasts 3 turns.

Inspection Test: -- in base-to-base contact, WIP roll by a Paramedic or Forward Observer or WIP +3 by a Specialist Operative, Doctor, Engineer, or Hacker
